Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

Angles and frequencies eh ? hehehe

Well I d better not go into that topic, ...ruffling feathers....LOL

You know, this frequency hoopla, it s like giving folk a life saving book and they start discussing on what sort of typewriter the book was written.

It is that stupid.

Whole discussions, always avoiding the core of the topic, the content of the book itself.

Well as far as I can tell the plasterite covers all frequencies, voila, said it , now the ban alert comes up, oh no, it is my forum, yeee lucky me....eh

It is white and white does include all colors it is not the absence of color Energiekegel also explains that on the german website.

That is why sunlight is white, covers all frequencies, pure life force and that is also a reason why anything ARTIFICIAL wont do.

It simply wont do, as we know by big pharma.

That is why artificial lighting cannot replace the sun light for growing crops to be healthy , etc etc as a lot of processes can only be manifested due to real sun light with all the goodies and " frequencies" in it as simple as that...everytime we give people an effective simple solution that has proven to work we get this sort of hoopla...

Next time they are gonna ask , can we put metals in it ? Coils ? Tensor rings? Artificial crap ?? bla bla bla bla

That s what it is...bla bla bla

How often do we see that assumption that selenite/ Plaster of Paris and the other ingredients is viewed upon as a sort of " replacement" for resin ?

Plasterite is not a replacement for resin and all that jazz Plasterite is a class of its own, a natural class, going way beyond the old school artificial desperate moves they did in the past using artificial ways.

But folk are so incessantly brainwashed in the " dor por " hoopla they cant think straight , just gobble the propaganda.

anyone who has genuinely experimented with natural solutions will know that answer as intuition will give you all the answers you need

How often has Josh said dont mix the two together in ONE SOUP ??

Sure, on the other hand, the plasterite, like bernoulli can be used to strengthen, balance, the metal resin, if one is into that that is true it powers it up, balance it, like the life pillow does.

but that only applies to folk who use the metal resin of course which is not so our cookie, forgive us for having our own opinion here.....

Selenite we use as a full solution to a lot of things that are going on is what is is a full solution and works on many levels , again, as Josh has pointed out so many times before.

Please let us grow up here dear public.

But you know , those folk who go into the chat boxes while online, that sort of thing, they are usually resin folk and have no idea what they are talking about, talking about techniques they have never granted a fair trial to see if it stands up etc so it s the usual confusion and bashing again, as always steering folk into la la land again.

Like big pharma does , big time, with all sorts of healing products, they just ban it or make it very hard to get your hands on things that do work against illnesses and the rest of it.

By Tony

Thank you all, and please, understand, in all humility, I am a sponge of knowledge that I either inherited from Spirit, Family and Friends, and Earth Angels! Regarding the programming aspect, I must say with all due honesty, there is no such thing as "wrong". NO, this is about US using what we ARE, and that is CONSCIOUSNESS! We Live, we Breathe, we Love, we Share... Say anything in your heart or mind, when doing such thing as Creating this "script" or "wish list" that you are providing this spanking new baby Consciousness, and you are it's ONLY point of contact, so to speak, initially. Like a hypnotist, you might murmur, "listen ONLY to MY voice" and then proceed to share with it what you wish! Simple is better, using projected visual input along with spoken or even written.... wink emoticon This is our Love Manifest! As Conscious Creators, we direct our intentions into these magnificent castings we each create, and just believe and know they wish only to do exactly as we ask! That being said, remember, this is a GROUP physical exercise or experience, so we just can't go and pick up a rock, and say, I'm now in charge of everyone, always... Our Matrix would crash, quick, if that "glitch" became enabled.... too many variations, too quickly! Let us simply ride this baby out, and whilst doing such, let us ride the SH*T out of it! DO everything you wish, and see what happens, only envision the exact outcome you desire. And if it doesn't happen, or does, sort of, or not really but something wild, or nada, you at least have moved your Conscious energy into Creation mode, instead of contemplative mode. So we try, we fail, we live, and we try again, or not. But simply being Alive is worth every second, of "this"..... Let's play, let's create and CREATE, and let's keep dreaming of our new World! Free of anything that might harm or hurt, oppress or destroy, any form of life.... Any! smile emoticon AHO!

Tony Outstanding....

Oh yeah!!!! Love the Zeolite!!!!!! Maybe some clay too, at least in my thinking for future castings... smile emoticon Awesome work, thank you for sharing, so inspirational!!! *bows* smile emoticon

Tony You know, Jacques and I use to quibble over Bovis readings, divined over using a pendulum when it came to Creations. I can tell you from what I scan and feel, that with your ingredients, and intentions, your Creations are amazing and strong! Jacques would get some ridiculously high number on a reading, for a Creation, and I would go and grab it, and just smile and look at him.... If it was "that" high, it would do some amazing, magical, unorthodox things to my "body" pretty quickly.... And that never happened. I love everything you are doing with this, and please don't focus on "power", when Love comes to play in form.... let them BE everything and anything, all perfect, all so awesome, with you Creating them and sharing them!!!! smile

So many Blessings and Gratitude!!!!

Stephen yes ,Tony.... I do miss Josh ... so many internet messages , experiments and trials... a good mate ....Plasterite Gmx....great demo and was really loving the bagpipes ....cheering from Oz . !!!

Tony My beautiful and amazing friend, please know that yes, that is true, but also, there is..... so much more! FB is superficial and trite.... but then again, it is a clear path to the highest levels of social mechanism that is really "energy".... smile emoticon ...See More Jenny Wonderful observation here Tony and thank you a million times for all your contributions over the last couple of days. You are creating such energies by them, we're all getting quite emotional heating about your early experiences, such a blessing you've done your mourning and are now back full steam ahead.

Tony THIS, is what Jacques, dreamed of.... THIS, is what You and I are here, for.... THIS, is our AWAKENING, and our TRUEST form, of Being, LOVE... Let's do this Shi(T)ft....

Oh yeah.... smile emoticon

Jenny Whew, powerful comments Tony. Yes please God, and many others too, hoping we all get huge energy to keep going, spreading the information, because there's so much more support needed. I've been saying for months that I can feel tiny ripples spreading, now hopefully becoming waves.

The Hill of Tara located near the River Boyne, is an archaeological complex that runs between Navan and Dunshaughlin in County Meath, Ireland. It contains a number of ancient monuments and, according to tradition, was the seat of the High King of Ireland.

Caroline and I had an impromptu gifting session this morning, first encircling IKEA with a ring of Selenite then tackling a large complex of Electric masts in Finglas. Caroline gives an example of an excellent lobbing technique accompanied by a loud 'Yeeee Hawwwwww ! We trudged through mud and floods to get there 😊

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

Tony

Hi Jenny, no, I don't mind at all. In the biggest sense, there really is no privacy anymore, so once you "think" something, let alone voice it aloud or through writing, it is OUT there....

No paranoia or fear here, I take each and everyday as a true BLESSING. In regards to Jacques health decline, and even my own, we could certainly speculate as to the what, where or why.

But both of us knew and I still do, the "risks" involved with being actively sharing and Creating such things.

There are so many stories I could share, that might possibly give credence to such thinking. I guess, now at least, I can share one that involved the two of us Creating something that we had to un-create, due to massive response from the planes and copters. There are many pioneers out in the world who do share, and that will always allow us both in the mix or in the fringe, to benefit. I had read about a gentleman that was using LOTS of copper wire to create some really, really big coils, and some amazing and unusual results from doing such. I won't mention his name just because, for now. If I remember, I had to buy a really large spool of wire while down in Asheville, so I could make what I wanted....

I remember telling Jacques my plan, and his face lighting up with delight, when I described what I wished to build. So we had to put some stakes up out in the yard, and I believe the total length was over 1000 feet of wire, and we wound, and wound, and wound, for hours, a scalar cancelling coil around a very large crystal point that I had bought from a local crystal reseller in nearby town. We wound this huge coil around the crystal, and I left about two feet coming from the crystal so I could take the wire leads, and connect them to a "zapper"....

I can remember to this day, the Lady Catherine, and her decidedly NOT HAPPY face, as the two of us chortled like two bad kids!

Sooooooo, I just had to turn it on. I couldn't help it! LOL I was so sure this would be a very special and BIG tool for us to use.... *blinks hard* smile emoticon Well, I did turn it on, and we set it outside, and then ate some dinner and wound up our evening..... except, we started to get some very low and close fly overs from several choppers, then small planes too! And it continued throughout the night, almost non-stop! I was outside in the "back", having a smoke, and was looking up at the constant air traffic, and naively still wondering why..... I finally went to be, after waving at our friends for a few minutes. Upon awakening, a very sad, and a very humbled looking Jacques greeted me. He told me he turned it off, and destroyed our coil. WHAT, was all I could think to say! Well, he said, the Lady was FURIOUS! She couldn't sleep at all that night, and "heard" we had went to far.... that the device was sending / broadcasting past the Moon, and that we had every agency on the planet looking for "us" and what we had created! OH SHIT! And other fun words of such passion! Like a very unhappy boy, I went and grabbed the crystal and stuffed it in my bag, and I promised, in my head, someday I would make it ROAR again.... LOL but I didn't, not wishing to wonder why I am might have unwanted visitors, again! They don't always come in physical form to find you, come after you, so I learned so many crazy lessons. So, like the ostrich, I try to bury my head from time to time, so that I might keep it.....

Blessings and HUGS!!!!!!!!! Tony

Murielle wow.guess you didn't take any pictures of that device... sounds cool... and very tempting to make. Maybe, just to play it safe, on a smaller scale. If you have any sketch we could try out a mini version

Tony Ah Stephen,

That is one nut buster, my friend. Well freakin' done!!!!!! I LOVE coils, have played with so many types and combinations.... Before I joined the Joe Cell group so many years ago, I had browsed and read some of the group material. I was fascinated. I was hungry. I was eager. I couldn't imagine such a thing might exist. So before I could create my own Joe Cell, I had to do SOMETHING!!!!!! LOL I grabbed some copper wire, can't remember the gauge, and created a small coil.... and got some 9 volt batteries, 3, and connected the together in a chain, two on one, and connected that, to a coil, in a glass jar, filled with tap water. smile emoticon It bubbled and fizzed, and I fainted with delight. It changed the water before my eyes, and I knew then, I was truly in love with freaking everything possible! Now to make it even more "fun", the smoke alarms in that condo, started to go nuts, with making these long, but really eerie, wailing noises. Two of them did it, while I was powering the coil in the water, and I'm happy as shit!!!! LOL Didn't have a clue why it was happening, I just knew I had did something ridiculous and crazy.... smile emoticon Back to your device, VERY STRONG! I LOVE IT! YES!!!!

Fintan

Even though we've met a couple of times Jenny, i'm kinda in the dark & shocked at the skullduggery going on from seemingly awake people. Why would people who know & respect the power of Orgonite attack someone who has a new version if their hearts were in the right place? When you first gave me Plasterite I wasn't an instant believer I never am until I have some experience of something but my wife took a piece an the next day confirmed it positive effects. Then i noticed the dog acting very playful everyday after we made the big cone, that was out of character for him lol. Since then I seen its potential but until you try something you cannot judge it, so why would anyone suggest Orgonite works but plasterite is rubbish. Were meant to be united in this struggle building positivity, not getting egotistical & bitchy. I'm saddened to hear assholes have been causing pain in your life. Blank all negative people that intrude in your happiness. Don't engage!

Jenny

Lovely to hear from you Fintan Mc D. What I was talking about happened some years ago, at the start of the whole Plasterite story, I'm happy to say things seem to have settled down now, or maybe the negative people just continue on their paths. Please keep up the gifting work with Juliet, it's all very much needed as you know. Hugs.

Jenny Mortell I agree about the power of thought and emotions, absolutely essential when working with plasterite. Some people need to put this into words and words can then be written down. Please don't be too hard on words Curtis. hahaha you know what I think now hmmmm Well Murielle asked for it also...

....to see the big one....

whaaaa

the mysterious supercracker Josh and Tony made, putting one foot before the other eh ?

dont worry Tony, we will ask our parents permission if we are in a playful mood

Just to give us a little you know " visual" on it would be nice but..again...if you think it s too strong in our puppies claws , than there is no need to hahahah think about it you can also send it to Jenn if you like so we can maybe put it on in the member section you see so it is not on public display LOL we wont tell anyone smiling my you you what of here must be your vibes, you have that talent of cheering folk up making them feel good even in these times we are in thanks

Re-igniting the FIRE!

Blessings and Greetings!!!!

I've been snowed in since last Friday, the Blizzard of 2016 here in the US East Coast turned out to be something of a beast....

It's been almost four weeks, and I'm still dealing with a severe head cold, as are just about everyone else around me, it's really made it's way through our area, getting everyone sick.

Lots of time to think and contemplate. I had a big orgonite piece Jacques gave me some years back, sitting all by it's lonesome in my garage, and it occurred to me, to do something....

So I grabbed this piece and started to look around the house for other orgonite pieces that I made that were still with me after so many moves over the last few years, and found something that I loved! I had found a mold that was like a two tiered wedding cake, and put some amazing goodies into it when I created it.

In my minds eye, I saw this huge tree stump we have from a fifty year old Maple that we had to take down last year, it was dying a threat to our roof. I grabbed the big piece, and my piece, and put mine on top, directly in the center of the stump. This was about a five days ago. I had noticed our skies, so beautiful and clear, the last two days, after the storm finally broke up..... but today, my beloved Sherry, while we were out shoveling snow, made a comment that really got my attention. She is aware of the trails, and why, and always looks up and comments on how badly they spray us.... So today, she simply says... "honey, have you noticed, the planes fly right over the house, and NOW, they start spraying once they are a little ways away"....

Huh?!? So I looked up, and she was right! And when they did start to spray, the trails were disappearing, immediately! Well, HOLY SHIT!

Ah, this made me HAPPY! I listened. My stump based device is cranking...

And now has me doing the Happy Dance all around the house!

I will take a pic once the snow melts enough... fun thing, the snow never completely covered it, the wedding cake orgonite piece always stayed clean, and so the kids decided to clear away all snow surrounding the piece, saying it wanted to be clean! LOL

I explained what it is to them, gently and with basic concepts, and they were thrilled!

Going to jump around a bit here....

So all of THAT, got my flame turned UP, and I then thought about something I made long ago, where you wrap a power cable around a piece of plasterite to transmit the energy. In all of my playing in many "fields", I discovered a few years back that I could capture the energy from a Plasma Ball, by doing something similar. But do be careful if anyone decides to try this, the Plasma can and will give you a small ZAP, if you become the conduit.... In my Healing Room, where my massage table is setup, I have "things" underneath the table to facilitate the healing process. I was going nuts, suddenly looking for more "things" to redesign and build my setup. I grabbed one of my Plasma Balls, and put it at the foot of the table, ran a power cord around the ball, and used the male receptacle to deliver the Plasma Energy to my build. OH MY! It creates an amazing field of energy. *claps loudly*

Tonight, the next "part" popped in.... I had got a second Plasma Ball for my B-Day that is USB and Bluetooth. Right now, I have it connected to my laptop, also in the Healing Room. I send healing frequencies and other assorted music through that connection, into the Plasma Ball, and .... touch it! Yet another way to transmit information.... tonight or tomorrow, I make the switch with the Plasma Balls. I can broadcast to the newer Plasma Ball wireless. I intend to send energy blockage removal frequencies as my test tomorrow... I can almost feel it now!!!

I share this for so many reasons. Transmit information. Transmit Energy. One in the same! So many valuable ways to do so! I'm going to experiment with this for a while, I can feel and tell there is so much for me to learn here.... Going to mix several methods to find what works best. Thinking witness wells incorporated into this mix, all about information transmission in the clearest, most powerful form.... Plasma Radionics! LOL

Jumping back to my house and yard. I have found about ten smaller pieces of orgonite that I made years ago, next step is taking them and stones collected from our yard, to make some spirals, around the bases, of my largest trees. And yes, I will ask them all, to CONNECT!!!! Let them clear out the East Coast....

Fanning the Flames of LOVE!

Let's do this SHI(T)FT!!!

Tony

Regarding my sharing of the "big one"... LOL

I will search but honestly tell you now, I'm not sure that I ever took a picture of it... *sob* Once we built it, I never imagined it would be destroyed the very next day, thought I would have lots of time to do such things... but I will look, promise! The crystal point I selected was from a local wholesale dealer in Cherokee North Carolina. Jacques had a business license, so we could buy at wholesale prices, tax free.

I bought LOTS of crystals for about US 300 dollars that day. This particular quartz crystal point was from India, was very old, and had lots of surrounding substrata matter around the base, was perhaps 7 inches long, and approx. 1 inch in diameter. I bought a very large reel of wire, and we set some stakes outside to allow us to double it, and we used a drill to twist it. Still racking my brain to remember the actual coil design, and still think it might have been a Starship Coil design by Lyle Latham. May have been 144 feet for the coil length, but I need to find the original... somewhere to make sure that's right. And I'm pretty sure I wrapped it and designed it with leads coming out to hook up with a zapper circuit provided by Don Croft, whom Jacques both knew and had played host to, in all of his wonderful fun! I think I rigged the setup with a 9 volt battery connected to zapper circuit (barebones, no casing, just circuit board, Jacques had about 20 of them!) I left it going all night.... LMAO! And even watched the parade of planes and copters, outside smoking, and didn't "get" it....

I won't build that one again, just because it feels like there are easier ways to influence change, gently and with such Divine assistance, that we become the bridge of love consciousness, between the Heavens, and perhaps, this hellalujah!

I believe ANYTHING is possible, until it's not, so go forth, spread gifts and create them lovingly. Our lives are so Blessed, to play, these roles, and to see manifest, our wildest dreams!

AHO!!!!!!!

hehehe..well you do have the spirit alright !!!

love it, thanks for the avalanche of possibilities ha but maybe my first project will be the " EnergyTwister" that natural thing we talked about on FB and some other experiments and selenite work from Eric and his buddy from the US, Dillon something. and our force from Slovenia , of course. Incl another top piece of Ray from the High Desert.

Gosh you guys, you have my germ-filled head spinning with all these possibilities. I'm glad I'm a simple girl and will stick to the 'Bare Essentials'. I was delighted to hear yesterday from a guy I'd sent a parcel of Plasterite to, that he could feel its power, and he cleverly asked a clairvoyant what he/she thought, who agreed with him.

Love your experiences with the tree stump Tony, hope you start feeling better soon. It's brilliant you are enthused again. I will be using your channelled message from Jacques on Saturday at the Workshop, but will need to ask someone else to read it for me, as I always 'fill up' when I read it.

Yes Sunflower, I did see my FB buddy Jason commenting about not breathing in selenite dust, must remember to keep my mouth shut when using Plaster and definitely don't breathe in

As for the comments about plasterite affecting the connection, that was, I suspect, a joke.

and yes ....that is correct, the last chapter of it hits the nail on the head

Thought about it too, even looked into the " zapper thing"

It s interesting, but I dont feel the need to go further into that might happen one day, maybe but ...dont count on it Nice of you to describe that hmm energy duel there can visualize it now, but than again, as you said, at the end it associates with a very complicated artificial " big pharma" touch trying to get to the real thing, nature.

That s how I see it, but I love experimentation of all sorts and the sharing of it, as there are different folk out there and not everybody gets too hot about natural ways. hahah nice story , smile a lot

Jenn said to me it s mainly because we lot are open minded , yes that is a fact, we are open minded, which does not imply we go along with a lot of hoopla out there nowadays automatically like we so often see. To be honest it is hard for the average Joe nowadays to get any real sort of information , tools, guidance, call it what you want to help them on their way to truth , reality, the real things.

When I started to work with the natural method, the only method I ever worked with as all other methods are not a challenge for it, I decided to take it to " the bitter end" this all or nothing approach, because some wonderful folk in the energy community, for lack of a better word, were feeling the vibes back than and got very hot about such topics despite the authorized steamroller flattening all free speech and so forth In short , no I did not jump on any bandwagon right away , studied the whole thing extensively also going deeper in the background of it all, trying to figure out what was going on Talked to them, those who worked with such techniques , personally over a period of time to see if it all holds up, if it is not some sort of trick or scam or whatever, like Josh I also was maybe too gullible at that early stage by thinking , well if it works a treat why there are not more post about it on all those big forums LOL ...hmm yeah why we know why

thought might be a good plan to start with that experimentation and do it properly and thoroughly to get the most out of it in experience during my holiday, so I did.

And it paid off as they say

One really can get in touch with that energy , although energy is a very neutral term there is more to it, awareness, insight, understanding, so much more next to the good effects it had immediately on the world around me in many ways also important , for newbies, is to start gifting right away does not have to be too far, five miles here , three miles there, to extent the field so it does not stand out too much and there wont be so much air traffic on top of the center of it, etc When it comes down to it , I was mainly " lured in" hahaha but the MG reports doing plasterite classes with kids, combining things there, you know ah great work and putting time and effort in the process of teaching people how this stuff works and what it can be used for, in his typical down to earth Aussie fashion because, at that stage, the healing talk or too technical talk from the German still did not hit home completely, they softened me up, probably, in at least going forward with it all, but those reports were gold and I said ha , ok let s go for it let s throw all the marbles in Like many folk and we see those a lot on FB now, they are not attracted to artificial solutions using the old methods. That s fair enough.

Still it took me a year or so to really understand it , connect to it, like a sort of entity so to speak, well it is like that it is , at that level , an sort of entity, Josh described it too he called it awareness of nature, it s just there but we are all almost blind and deaf and cant make too much out of it once we start or at least I could not, and slowly start to understand as the selenite gives clear views into the heart of the matter and sort of helps the searcher along, all in due time, once the individual is ready to go further with it, wont happen overnight, although some explosions of insight will occur, once in a while, like that thing on the patio, suddenly it is there and it overwhelms you, it s always been there but I could not see it, it s deep stuff even more intense than the basic " waking up" most folk go through who look into these things, while the majority sleeps in ignorant bliss

Therefor those who have their second wake up into the energy realm will understand those stories in the blink of an eye, in a flash, they know

Jacques tried to explain so much even in such an early state of things, at that time, there is so much content in it, in a way such things are ahead of its time, it might take some time, who knows, but it is very advanced even if it looks uncomplicated at first look

My main motivation, in regards to the forum itself , is to keep the good information, the real sources alive, as my little contribution to a wonderful person whom we learned a lot from, as simple as that. The few heroes that break the spell as I call it and say no we are going to do it differently and its gonna kick ass and it does it surely does

I do feel great that means something out of my mouth LOL hahaha

Stephen was right about the bovis reading of these " cement" pieces they are very modest so we see there are differences it is very subtle energy coming from such constructs not too high , not too punchy , but still can lure out a few sylps and manages to give blue sky so no wonder the plasterite works so well, it is much more advanced and powerful

In my trials I used way more plaster of Paris and way more salt and sand and they are much more punchy but still not as high as the pure thing also this Portland stuff is not so pleasant to work with once you are used to the high energy output of the Plasterite nothing else will do whaaahahaha wow that hurt ...do we have to censor the last sentence ...

So the healing method is finally making its first baby steps out of the healing club and folk are using it in their own particular way too it is a very diverse method, it's like raw material you can mold it into what you want it to be as it is just energy , in , maybe, the most pure form.

United Left Alliance

The ULA believes The Garden should be operated as a communal space where everybody works together to create a sustainable future for all, where all wealth is shared equally, where little fluffy bunnies hop around in Che Guevara T-shirts, and where people smoke pipes. Unfortunately, the ULA have never done any actual gardening in their entire lives.

Filling the Political Vacuum

Fine Gael

After Fianna Fáil abandoned The Garden and went off to town to collect its pension and drown its sorrows in the pub, Fine Gael took it over, not for the first time, when it was very badly overgrown and covered in the blood of the recently savaged Children of Ireland. Fine Gael started off by shooting The Bear in the face and forcing the rest of the Children of Ireland to move to another garden. It then embarked on a process of hacking, cutting, slashing and burning which it set about doing with a fervour bordering on sexual. It uprooted all the native Irish trees and sold them off to Donald Trump who now uses them as as wig stands.

Sinn Féin

Sinn Féin patrols a small area of The Garden that is actually behind the wall to an adjoining property. This is a disputed area of The Garden and it is full of many suspicious-looking mounds under which things are quite possibly buried. Sinn Féin have planted lots of pretty flowers to cover over the mounds, but people find it hard to tear their gaze away from them. Unperturbed, Gerry Adams continues to tweet diverting pictures of his cute little dog in The Garden. Sinn Féin might one day be considered contenders to run The Garden, but then again, mounds.

ah yes, it's good dear Tony shares his life force with us and learn us some new tricks on the way and yes, will mainly stick to the natural way, sure, but who knows, maybe gonna try something different just to see what it does and now have the car, never had one, can do that in different places, building those grids like an energy twister etc

Please dear J , take it a bit more slow this year and maybe try to find someone to train thoroughly someone who is ready for it to take over some of the workload etc maybe use that as an affirmation , silently , of course hehehe Unfortunately I dont have the luxury of living in Ireland where there are so many aware folk around

I dont know if anything comes out of it , that does not really matter, I mean in my promotion of certain topics all sorts of topics and authors, healers, etc, all that we dont hear too much of I do it anyway and I feel rather good about it solution focussed things that work

Jenn, they are playing with us, told you yesterday on FB , over 500 views, or at least that was what it said at that point in time, god knows how many views that one REALLY has gotten... over time..if they had not keep slicing it....we will never know....that was , you know, a few hours ago and look at it now, 431 views, they are screwing around with us big time they keep the view count low, deliberately , sneaky ways, they just won t have it. Period.

A big 'Thank You' to Patricia O Connell for inviting me to hold a Plasterite/Selenite workshop in Monaghan today. I hope you all enjoyed it as much as I did, and that you felt you learnt and achieved a lot. Sorry for leaving the plaster-encrusted room, stairs and shop floor below for Aoife to clear up ..

Beautiful Sunday again friends, everyone in this group is concerned about what is happening to our environment, and wanting to do everything we can to help it survive and heal. We are adding our strong intention to help Plasterite/Selenite and all Tools of Light in this work. Please pause for a moment at 7 p.m. (here in Ireland) or any other time today that suits you and join your thoughts with whoever can actually say the affirmation for today, which is from our lovely friend Tony Geron.

Could you set your phone alarm for 9 hours from now and let's make this a really strong, powerful event. If you have a piece of Selenite, hold it briefly and its energy will spread to all the other Selenite all over the world.

'I wish to see an end to geo-engineering, a return to blue skies, a boost to plasterite and all other Tools of Light all over the world to achieve this. I call for the HELP of the Elemental Kingdom, for it is their Home as well. In particular, I will Call upon, the Cloud Nation, The Over Soul of the Wild Geese, the Sylphs of the Air, and the All of the Fairy Realm, to Honor and Assist our Prayers, Intentions and Affirmations of Transformation, Elimination, and Purification of our Beloved Earth, Skies and Waters, in our Unity of Love, our Community of Respect. One great thing about the workshop, all eight of the participants and I made quite a large cone, and they all unmolded without breaking, even after only about half an hour curing time, that was a pretty unusual record wasn't it? Maybe we should thank Uldris for his good tapping technique, and the others learnt from him.

A wonderful collection of random creator's photos, thanks. Nice affirmation from Ben (where did this come from ?)

Really shows we need to check the page daily or we miss a lot. I need to updating with some new pourers on board i.e. Patricia (gifting) and Clare making her very first pour, after only learning about Plasterite a couple of weeks ago from the first radio interview a fast, intelligent and sensitive learner there. Clare was also a participant in the Chatroom on the programme with Tony G last evening, she was a great help coming in with very positive comments (Thanks Clare) And looking forward to seeing you uploading some of your photos.

I'm happy to add some photos from Patricia O'Connell who has made some Plasterite, but I believe this is her first gifting run. Thanks Patricia.

It is absolutely amazing.

Quite an astonishing interview, as I can tell this has never happened before , not so public and not so marvelously by these two wonderful persons.Tony managed to keep Sean quiet for almost the whole time, we have not seen that before. There is a slight promise to touch on topics again, from just addressing the Tools of Light into the healing part maybe. Anyway, something to look forward to. Thanks guys, you were fabulous. Many topics were addressed, too many to name here but I try.

History of Orgonite, Reich, Croft, later on people try finding new methods, some breakthroughs, healing, the control grid, gifting against that control grid structure, interaction with Jacques, exchanging ideas and knowledge, working with nature not against it, Broadcasters,selenite/plasterite, energy experiments, personal observations and influences on the world at large

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

Did a little plasterite energy workshop here for a visitor, a female doctor, an MD as they say , as she is going through a divorce and the rest of it, so instead of doing the usual bla bla most folk do , leading nowhere, we work on the energy level, worked out very well, she even made lots of energy tools, they turned out to be really strong, especially the dome structure, was kind of tricky, as it was a cheap large glass vase I specially bought for the purpose, only three bucks...that would NEVER hold, but...hold your feathers, it held !!

Strong piece it became.

She is uplifted in spirit, big time. A real eye opener there.

To see this energy stuff actually at work in real time is astonishing you just stand there and smile and think whaaaaaaaaaaaaaa heart_80_anim.gif.gif (42.26 KiB) Viewed 45 times

We used fast plaster, but normal would do too, of course, natural salt, it does not have to be Himalaya, one could use Celtic salt, or even Atlantic salt if not manipulated by Corporate Overlords as normal white salt is like white sugar, all goodies have been removed so you end up with something that is not beneficial to you. But , by now, I recon , we all know that.

Beach sand, two hands of sea shells in the large Dome, a few crystals and lots of healing Oils, esp those for the airways, like lavender and Eucalyptus.

As she has asthma, like many young folk nowadays, must be a ...coincidence....

funny enough when she is here she does not suffer so much from it....again....coincidence...

Re: THE IRISH TOPIC

My facebook " drama"

LOL came to an end, happy me, not my place to be.

I find it obnoxious, that is my opinion.

Can talk hours about it but I'll spare you the greasy details...you'd love to don't you Still, facts are facts, yes there is a sort of uprising taking place, for lack of a better word, remember this is a healing method.

A powerful one, the most powerful on the energy market to play with. It's for real people who want to create real change.

As Tony so charmingly said during his amazing talk with Sean, this is not about creating fancy things to paint....you know, that's more like a side effect.

The focus should remain creating change around us in many ways.

There are a few out there who will escape the incessant programming on the mind, most will not escape that, I saw that on facebook, most are fooled left right and center, that's why the "new age" has been created through the theosophic society, Blavatsky, Alice Bailey and the rest of the club in those days to pave the way for the new world order. Kicking religions out of the window and replace it with some strange earth worship of the wrong kind. The kind we saw recently in Dublin's streets, those muppets begging to be depopulated, that's what it is although the sheeple don't realize that. The massive Trojan Horse called Agenda 21 aka the sustainability agenda, call it what you want, it's still the same mantra at the end.

Sheridan uses the word "sheeple 2.0" I like that phrase as that is what it is, wading through herds of those on the "aware pages", what that prick's name? Russell Brand ha ..; what a puppet of the elite that is, so predictable but....a good example how ridiculously easy it is to control the masses, they still, most of them anyway, fall for that mumbo jumbo, sometimes I wonder, let's leave it there as it is obvious the masses cannot be helped, at least not yet, maybe for another day, who knows.

So we started spouting some good stuff there and one will be confronted with the fluoride stare... untitled.png (112.42 KiB) Viewed 62 times saw that too much while being there one would like to take a little hammer and give a little knock on their heads this " hello , somebody home" you know what I m saying truly mind boggling no response total zombie time now so something is at hand there it s like opening the door of a bird s cage and the bird looks at you with this what do you want me to do look beyond help that s how I see it, the majority at least there are a few sparkling souls to be found there, but they are as rare as a honest Irish politician, or lawyer , etc, so ....wish you luck finding one, kind of a stretch.

The alternative movement , if it ever truly existed, has been so absorbed into the system it is truly astonishing.

Has gotten worse

Some of you are aware of that, most are not.

How badly the few good willing folk are being used

An interview , I dont know, in that way I resemble Juliet as she turns into a fish wife in a flash and you would not believe what comes out of that mouth the same here, thankfully we have still some people with dignity around , or self control, like ShamanTony who saved the day there , on our behalf

Also Jenn has impressive self control and appearance to make an interview going even when the technical jadja falls into the pond

Must say I am happy as punch about the two of you

Stunningly impressed

Posted all your good works here , for the few who want to make good use of it.

It is good to see new blood is coming in and taking the challenge on head first that s very pleasing, also how nice the workshops are taking hold gradually is a positive note it s real grassroots, the way it should be and the way we rarely see

There are only a few good people around who are worth their salt.

You can recognize good folk by what they do not just what they say

It has to be manifested, has to be put into reality , not just bla bla fancy talk and politcally correctness, the levels of political correctness have increased dramatically now you cannot speak out any opinion or the sheeple 2.0 jump on you those tattooed vegan love and peace wearing che guevarra t shirts bopping their head to a John Lennon song , those types you know the sort, those " oneness" types drewling about " infinite consciousness" while trying to upload a pic of Russel Brand , or Brand X as he calls himself now, you get the idea mr and mrs natural fibers on their bike saying boo to cars, hmm , wearing their Soviet Greenpeace sweaters....I am so fed up with that stuff it is beggaring belief

According to Greenpeace geo engineering, fancy word for chemtrails, does not exist, how convenient is that ?

it s all a scam folks but once you crawl out of that mess you can do something about it , by yourself, dont expect too many volunteers

so Jenn and company have to stand on the bridge again by themselves maybe Terry pops up too, I hope they all wear thermals can get bloody cold on such a bridge in winter time. Yikes.

So you have those facebook groups, the Che Guevarra types, those armchair warriors, talking crap about the nwo, illuminati shite and the rest of it and feeling very good about themselves, not gonna do anything whatsoever to change the status quo, no no just nagging on people , those slaves who resist their own imprisonment , like us, kick us in the back for not going along with the soviet flow of correctness and the rest of it and I ve had it.

Well Sean was right this whole fricking planet can use some healing, that s a given How many folk do you know can actually think for themselves , go through the real documentation about the system, do their homework etc As far as I can see all those " leaders " that are shuffled down our throats whether we like it or not are fake so fake it is blatant those David Icke, A Jones, Mark Dice, it s all crap, they give you some facts and than the hoopla comes in to keep you running in circles completely disarmed and dumbed down nothing happens there just money making over your back or behind your back whatever you want to name it And just I sometimes throw up the name Sheridan does not mean I shower with that guy I have some issues with him too, believe you me, a lot of bullocks there too, but once in a while when he is sober and has taken that postponed shower, he can accidentally say something useful

"The most spiritual thing on the Internet is not the Vatican website. No, no. It's not the Plejadians. It's not any other flying saucer New Age worship site, Saint Germaine... all that bollocks. It's none of that. The most spiritual thing on the Internet today is the block button on Facebook." ~ happens to all of us It always amazes me how easy people , most , run after a leader without double checking his credentials or dare to question anything they dont question anything so this geo engineering movement , ah well better not talk to much about that now I dont believe in " voting" or " democracy" as that s just a scam to keep you busy and in a mind set that is not real to keep you from burning the parliament every few years that s what it is , a trick, an elite trick , a trick of the elect, elect - trick.... that s a cute one eh ?

like con-trail....

or con science , the english language is very infected with that mind play but that s not for now among all that doom and gloom there are strong sparks jumping " out of the bag" and we treasure those keep those close to the heart and sometimes little miracles happen ,as with Patricia, she just starts gifting by herself knocks down a few towers, saving the duckies good girl you see that was not too hard was it ?

and it did not break the bank either

And the latest pieces I ve made are crazy strong by the way I am used to strength now this energy stuff, but the dome I made with the doctor is bizarre, strongest horse around have not been abled to sleep properly for a week still I am fit when I wake up strangely enough

Eric noticed it too, it is a real blaster we have to come up with new bovis stuff here as this goes beyond the trillions haha infinity there you are can hardly breath with that thing in the house like having a love H bomb in your living room bumping and jumping like a hammer to the head that thing

DSC02842.JPG (293.94 KiB) Viewed 62 times

A lot , well you know, a considerable amount of folk are going into gifting now and that s totally new so yes makes it all worth it.

Another postive note, as I was on facebook and meet the most experienced orgonite dude on the planet hahahaha you are great decided to get myself a Life Pillow , always wanted one could not stall it any longer, had to have and I jumped on it it s a big one, as far as I can tell the most beautiful energy piece ever made this side of heaven sorry for the understatement hahaha best pieces you make and now the beauty is on its way to Europe all the way from Australia

Monsoon Orgonite is the name the life pillow is worth it and you are worth it too, so is Steven due to his wonderful sharing over the years of techniques things that work , you wont find too many of those.

looks like it would cost a fortune but that is not the case although shipping to the US or other parts of the world is costly

the polarizer can be used inside the domestic sphere for zillions of applications, also pain relief, you name it it makes things more agreeable to the body but it works , tested my own life pillows so now it is time for an upgrade.

The price is very moderate, taking into consideration the high level of skill involved here this is a top quality piece last a life time it s a bargain compared to the company in the past who distributed similar devices for five times the price and than they came in small metal boxes, cigarette type boxes and this is a huge masterpiece I call it the perfected technique. if you want one, you can make one yourself of course, very cheap, but we all like to have something fancy too and practical also so why not at least it's money well spend there you go

oh you sexy ...

Resin Life Pillow .jpg (13.77 KiB) Viewed 62 times

I love to do shameless promotion if you can deliver good stuff not just the plastic crap and this life pillow is already a collectors item as nobody makes them even worse response than the plasterite It's getting late here and I am glad I am off that facebook but left my account intact to tease you once in a while see what you mob are all up to not much I assume

I am happy.

My life pillow from Australia has arrived in good order.

More than happy, having this perfected technique.

Thanks Sunflower for sharing pictures of what was a super day. I got a bit of a fright at first when I heard there were going to be 7 participants, worrying would we have enough space in a kitchen. But it all worked out perfectly, all co-operated, all had fun. So interesting seeing the different attitudes, Katarina and Jurie wanted as much and as big as possible for their 'cottage'. It's in The Curragh in Kildare, and is just beside an Army Base (not that much military stuff happens there I'd say). So they did some big pours. Richard and Mano only wanted small items because of lack of space in their apartment. I was told to watch out for a very skeptical Mano, who was going to ask me difficult questions, but he surprised everyone by being a total sweetie and joining in enthusiastically. Edina was rather mystical, she had lots of essential oil, lovely smelling which she generously shared. And she could not be stopped from going out, collecting and adding in twigs and little flowers. Heather made LOTS of little shapes which she will be giving to her colleagues on a new Start your own Business course, starting on Monday. Tomasz was a very interesting guy, a mixture of the scientific and metaphysical, he is doing a Physiotherapy Course but will bring in a very holistic approach. It was brilliant at the end where they all co-operated in making one last large cone which turned out beautifully.

And there's a plan in mind to take a stall at an forthcoming Festival in June called Body and Soul. Katarina thinks it would be a great project, to tell people about Plasterite, have little demonstrations and sell things. We'd be talking to the right audience. Of course I said I'd be all for it. Feeling excited

And, as we continue being hammered by the control grid, flogging us into this brave new world scenario, actually we are deep in it already, we observe this life with great amazement every day for example yesterday and today the chemtrail activity was going overboard , new normals, at least 150 planes doing their aerosol thingy today, sunday, it s more of the same ridiculous poisoning totally overboard, made some new energy pieces and had lots of watchers, you know the rotor blades came very close yesterday, three turns, standing still in the air for a few seconds and leaving again, new normals on Facebook there is really not much , if at all , happening, so I will sneak out of FB , not much postings there, somehow folk nowadays cant be motivated for anything call it what you want they just wont do it, period. end of story.

zillions of groups there, alien UFO worshippers, all that jazz nobody doing nothing except repeating those annoying silly crappy postings, fluoride, New world order, chemtrails, all that shite mixing it in with hoopla , you name it it is there if you want to find someone who stands up to the system, well mate, good luck to you , I wish you , out of my heart , all the best of luck, you will have a hard time finding even one.
All political correct, all doing the allowed 10 second bark, waving their Carbon flags, mind controlled government owned drones with Che Guevera fxxxking tshirts and " I am so oneness tattoo" on their asses.
Totally hopeless cases, most are just cashing in on the metal resin orgonite, that s the main reason they are there in the first place, we all know it.
There is always a good buck to be made of our demise, never let a good crisis go to waste the Elite always say, it s their slogan.
Make them pay their own shackles , that sort of thing Make them pay for the control grid, jadijadja....

All agendas on a roll, people never do their homework, so dumbed down beyond belief.
Beyond belief.
Totally sucked in by the agenda without even knowing, no awareness there, except from the old crew , T and MG, I have found hardly anyone who is even slightly aware of what s really going on how most are just played like a harp child s play by the system
all shouting the right slogans, wearing the same t shirts, parroting the same crap, given to them by the system through FB, like drewling zombies and if ANYone dares to speak our their OWN true opinion, man , they are gonna flog you into oblivion...
You got all those fake " eternal consciousness love and radiant light " brainwashed muppets chasing you to crucify you , you see because you can think, as thinking is obsolete now, you see obsolete no thinking just dance to the authorized beat, get your anti illuminati tattoo, put it on your ass where it belongs we have sometimes daily about over hundred chedumps overhead daily get that ?
repeat previous sentence I know it s hard work thinking

so on FB there is this " tea party " atmosphere, you see all cozy and fluffy, all sucking up all nice and neatly political correct no one sings from their own songsheet there no no just do as you are told do as others do follow the herd shut up and obey

So, we have this natural solution, yeah I know, dorky, a bit goofy, highly effective mind you but you know no cash in it no business so it just wont roll with most folk and instead of giving us a hand here, helping those who stand up, the only thing they can do on FB is crush those people who are truly aware, who are making a stand, in many ways no mate, cant have that, you get that anti illuminati tattoo on your ass and wear your Che Guevara T shirt and become vegan and wave our depopulation flags or else ....this CO2 global warming crap amongst many other cons that are continuously pulled on us relentlessly but they dont see they never think they cant be warned

All dumbed down now popcorn folk cant be bothered you see with real work real work that is yes not interested no no, armchair warriors ha losers

The only good thing that came out of it was the Interview or interviews, with Sean Maguire and Tony, Jenn, etc.
That s the only good thing Even though facebook is not necessarily needed to make that contact, etc if you get the picture.

It s all casual now you see casual be casual about it , you see that s the new mantra dont study, dont advance, dont investigate, dont break through the programming , no no just be casual nice and fluffy, cheap fast consumption you see that s what it s all about now be popular, also a big one dont have a thought of your own for goodness sake Is it not funny , is it not, that while I was on that dreadful facebook, some folk messaged me, personally, this hush hush thing Oh .;;buddy, look , I made a plasterite piece, hush hush, looking carefully around them, because nobody is allowed to know that you see that might cost you some bonus points , you get it ?

If other folk would know you are into that, the free method, cant be, not allowed you get whipped again by the group All making a good buck of the toxic weak resin crap, but that is not discussable non negotiable over ruled nobody can touch the holy $$$$$ cow of orgonite wont happen when I became aware of its potential I jumped on it, after trialing it first, like the illuminati on a non controlled country with resources, like boom but nobody want to rock the boat eh ?
Nobody wants to rock the boat

All safe and sound in lala land I have never witnessed more mind control sheeple than in the so called " truth movement" groups and the like on Facebook take that to chew on Sheeple 2.0 Sheridan calls them right on Those sheep are even worse, you see, because they think, they broke free, while being just in another box with even more control to it without realising it and if you point it out they ll turn on you in the righth time they will turn on you they always do those flat earth , crop circle, Planet X , doomsday 2012 worshipping mobs.
They always do.

the whole facebook has turned into a sort of controlled entertainment business that s what it is entertainment business has nothing to do with reality whatsoever for the most part tons of low level " awareness" but they dont advance you see they dont do their homework it s hard work you see doing your homework looking into things by yourself all that reading, tiresome and boring too, mind you, boring and dull and dry the information is, about what s really going on so you can start connecting the dots for yourself

Most folk really cannot handle truth, facts they cannot handle it and if you are into this awakening hoopla for some time you know that that s the case they cannot handle truth simple and neat

they look through ,maybe three or four basic agenda s, simple junior school stuff, chemtrails, fluoride, vaccinations, that shite and they think they know what s really going on, they know nothing you will recognise them by their works and that s a hard fact when you look at people s work , what they do, what they talk about , etc, you will know on what level of awareness or the over used term, consciousness, they are usually at level ...0

than folk ask why can t I be on your friend s list on Fb well, I say, that s because you are full of shite than they go Oooooh ;;; you cant say that...that s not nice and politically correct if you say that you have to submit, obey, be the borg like the rest No I wont
You will not be allowed on my Friend s list, you are still full of utter shite and phantasy BS, and you know what else ?
what ?
you suck

Than you have this Irish mob, who actually DO something, in many fields, but they hardly get any attention if at all so sad , well that s my opinion, I think that s sad, they ought to have much mure exposure they put their asses on the line getting cold feet and all that , putting up with the ignorance most folk show when they see one of those " conspiracy nutters" like us those goofy people you see, goofy, why, because they claim two and two equals four, god, those muppets can u believe that , so obsolete.

When I entered FB you had this David Bowie crap going on , you know All over the planet who knows how many folked are bombed into oblivion but most dont give a fuck you see but oh my David bowie died

oh my stop the Earth time clock and all hug and cry together another hollywood promoted STAR bites the dust

oh my

all bow down now and show you are one, this oneness thing again

Boy what a farce that was what a farce whole countries in the middle east are getting flattened, we have tons of problems ourselves, but no no no cant talk about real facts, things at hand in your backyard cant talk about that mate and I dont want to hear about those chemtrails anymore jadija here buddy , have an organic greek salade hope you choke on it no you cant

you see you cant talk about that the Bowie thing was really over the top Never saw millions of sheep like that truly amazing that s because they are all so fucking full of awareness they make their own fake promoted guided choices in life you see no they wont do anything against the system we live under, for heavens sake no but they do dare to chose their organic greek salade themselves, wow Tarzan where have you been, with or without organic eggs, that s the level of consciousness those freaks are into.

it is very easy to fool people it is very hard to make them realise they have been fooled
